

NEWS OF THE SPORTING WORLD.

New York and Chicago Play an Exciting Game.

The Chicagoans Had Everything Their Way Up to the Fourth Inning. When the Giants Killed, But Too Late to Win. Cleveland Beats Brooklyn, Radburn Pitching—A Good Game for the Cincinnati, But Lacked Support—Association Games—Yesterday's Events of the Turf—Local Sporting News.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 10.—[Special]—Errors by Berger, wild pitching by King and opportune batting by the Phillies won the game from the Pittsburgh club to-day. The contest was interesting and close throughout although Harry Wright's men took the lead in the second inning and held it to the close. Score: Pittsburgh, 2; hits, 9; errors, 3. Philadelphia, 4; hits, 7; errors, 2. Batteries: King and Berger; Esper and Gray. Umpire, Lynch.

THE BROOKLYNS BEATEN. CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 10.—[Special]—John Ward and his ball players arrived here to-day and made an unsuccessful attempt to win a game from the home club. Their failure to carry off the honor was chiefly due to errors by Griffin, Collins and Pinkney and inability to solve the intricate pitching of Gruber when it would do them the most good. The Spiders outplayed their opponents at all points and won on their merits. Score: Cleveland, 4; hits, 9; errors, 2. Brooklyn, 3; hits, 6; errors, 4. Batteries: Gruber and Zimmer; Lovett and Daily. Umpire, Hearst.

CHICAGO BEATS THE GIANTS. CHICAGO, July 10.—[Special]—Rusie was pounded right and left for three innings in to-day's game, nine hits being made by the Chicagoans up to the fourth inning. While this terrific slaughter was going on the New York players seemed to be completely demoralized. Balls that should have been easily stopped developed into singles and two base hits with startling rapidity until the score at the end of the third inning stood 8 to 0 in favor of Anson's men. After this inning, however, Rusie and those behind him settled down to some of the prettiest ball playing seen here in many a day. But two safe hits were made off the young cyclone's delivery and not another run was scored by the Chicagoans during the game. The Giants made a great rally at the bat in the seventh and were unable to win the game. Score: Chicago, 8; hits, 11; errors, 3. New York, 4; hits, 10; errors, 4. Batteries: Hutchinson and Kilbridge; Rusie and Buckley. Umpires, Powers and Battin.

RADBURN PITCHED A GOOD GAME. CINCINNATI, Ohio, July 10.—[Special]—Rhines pitched two innings for the home team to-day but was troubled so much with his lame arm that Radburn was called upon to take his place, and had been properly supported, would have probably added another victory to his list. As it was, he held the hostons down to five hits, well scattered, except in the fifth, when Storey banged out a home run. Nichols pitched a good game and was well supported. Score: Boston, 5; hits, 6; errors, 2. Cincinnati, 2; hits, 7; errors, 2. Batteries: Nichols and Gansel; Rhines, Radburn and Harrington. Umpire, McGuire.

ASSOCIATION GAMES. At Philadelphia—Athletic, 8; hits 6; errors, 1. Cincinnati, 3; hits, 4; errors, 4. Batteries: Sanders and Milligan; Crane, Kelly and Vaughan. Umpire, Jones. At Baltimore—Louisville, 6; hits, 7; errors, 5. Baltimore, 11; hits, 20; errors, 5. Batteries: Fitzgerald and Cahill, Madden and Townsend. Umpire, Ferguson. At Washington—Washington, 10; hits, 9; errors, 5. Columbus, 4; hits, 8; errors, 6. Batteries: Foreman and McGuire; Easton and Donahue. Umpire, Davis. At Boston, game postponed on account of rain.
